Application to enter the League:

HOMER (Bruce O.) – Coach from Homer was present at the meeting and provided BOD with the:

- Current status of baseball in Homer
- Field Status
- Reason for wanting to join the league
- Support from Community Group

Questions and discussion was held with BOD

Action

1. After some discussion there was a general feeling that the President of the league meet with the Community, parents ,coaches to review league requirements and ensure that there is a strong understanding to the league expectations.
2. It was noted that those arrangements need to be confirmed with League President within 2 weeks or by (2/23/19)
3. Once meeting is held the president will report back to the BOD by email and a vote will be taken by email-text-voice on a decision to allow entry into the league
4. If there is no meeting by 2/28/19 – then league will drop any consideration for entry in 2019

Discussion

- President shared with BOD a general list of things that were concerns last year – along with positive aspects of the 2018 season.
- The reason for reviewing these issues is to determine at the next meeting a general set of procedures to handle issues for the upcoming season and future seasons

ITEMS for Discussion and possible vote @ the 4/7/19 meeting

SOP for handling league issues (items reviewed at the 2/10/19 Meeting)

Discuss to implement a moratorium for new towns into the league

Player's on rosters (players at end season only): New deadline date and MUST have participated in a minimum # of games during the season

Review – Our commitment to keeping teams balanced

Chalking lines from home plate to outfield fence

Didget Division: Players cannot advance on any pass balls (Basically no stealing)

Didget Division: Lower OPEN INNING to the 5th inning (dropped from current 6th inning)

Meeting Adjourned @ 2:50pm
